

The Hunter Family Foundation believes every family should have equitable opportunities to LEARN, PLAY & GROW together in their home communities.

LEARN PLAY GROW COMMUNITY RESPONSE

Early Childhood
 Wraparound Family Services
 Field building
 Systems Improvement

Literacy & Social-Emotional Learning
 Student Support/Enrichment
 Access to Literature
 Field Building
 Systems Improvement

Post-Secondary Pathways
 Career Pathways
 College Access/Persistence
 Systems Improvement

Environmental Stewardship
 Family Projects
 Cross-Sector Collaboration
 Policy/Advocacy

Access to Nature
 Family Recreation
 Parks & Trails

Access to Healthcare
 Community-based clinics
 Reproductive Health
 Community Health Workers
 Systems Improvement

Food Security
 Direct Access to Food
 Systems Improvement

Special Initiatives
Urgent Action
Pressing Community Needs

Family
 Legacy
 Discretionary
 Matching
 International

APPROACH

Uses a Trust-Based Philanthropy framework to guide decisions around practice, culture, structures, & leadership

COMMUNITIES

Chicago & Lake County, IL
Denver, CO
San Francisco, CA
Western North Carolina
Northern Wisconsin
Boca Grande, FL

GRANTS

Building power by investing in communities in ways that best support residents

Trust-Based Philanthropy
 General Operating Support
 Advocacy/Systems Change
 Community-Driven

PARTNERSHIPS

Sharing power by connecting partners with opportunities and resources

Collaborative Grantmaking
 Learning Communities
 Thought Partnerships
 Community Planning

LEADERSHIP

Leveraging power to meet community-driven goals and promote collective action

Convening across sectors
 Advising
 Co-creating
 Serving on boards/committees